Stuart Rossmiller, CFA

Director, Fixed Income Research

Stuart Rossmiller is the Director of Fixed Income Research for MEMBERS Capital Advisors in Madison, Wisconsin. He is responsible for high-grade and high-yield telecom; media and technology; gaming and lodging; and paper, packaging, lumber, and homebuilding industries on the Fixed Income Team. He joined MEMBERS Capital Advisors in 2006.

Stuart began working in the fixed income investment business in 1989. Prior to joining MEMBERS Capital Advisors, he served as Managing Director in the Fixed Income Research Department at Merrill Lynch, where he coordinated the high-grade and high-yield telecom, media, and technology research effort.

Stuart also served as a Vice President in the Corporate Bond Research Department at Deutsche Bank Securities. He joined Deutsche Bank in 1996 and was responsible for high-grade and high-yield media and entertainment, telecommunications, as well as U.S. and foreign consumer products including food, beverages, and tobacco.

From 1992 to 1996, Stuart was a Senior Director at Fitch Ratings, where he coordinated the credit rating activities of the media and telecommunications group. From 1989 to 1992, Stuart was a Senior Associate at Barclays de Zoete Wedd in the Corporate Finance Department, where he underwrote leveraged loans and project finance ventures for companies in the telecommunications, media, and entertainment industries.

Stuart earned a Master of Business Administration (MBA) Degree in finance in 1989 and Bachelor's Degrees in economics in 1987 and education in 1984, all from the University of Wisconsin. He also spent three semesters at the University of Sao Paulo in Brazil. Stuart earned the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) designation, and holds FINRA (NASD) Series 7, 63, and 24 licenses.

Stuart is a member of the advisory board for the Economics Department at the University of Wisconsin, and a member of the Middleton-Cross Plains Area Board of Education.
